Dear Fellow Educator & Literacy Advocate,

Due to the national emergency that's impacting school access and the education of our children, students, and families, Footsteps2Brilliance.com has decided to donate and provide 100% FREE 90-Day Access and use of our award-winning and gamified bilingual literacy platform. This opportunity is being offered to interested school district Superintendents and School Boards throughout America. This is our way of supporting our children and families through these challenging times.

There is NO COST and NO OBLIGATION to Districts or Families

To take advantage of this free offer, please email or call me. You may also complete this form to expedite your access:

Virtual Learning Is the New Normal

We will virtually set up your state, county, or district for FREE so that families can easily register. We will provide free access to your teachers and students so that learning still takes place. Our team will include free and ongoing live and recorded webinar support and training for your teachers, administrators, and community leaders to help families maximize learning time. We're also aligned to most curriculum's used by districts.

Please forward this info to your colleagues so that we can help serve as many children, students, families, educators, and communities as possible.

Thank you for your commitment to impacting students and families as we all work together to make a difference for our children, especially those parents and children experiencing higher levels of stress and uncertainty during these times.

About

www.Footsteps2Brilliance.com

Since 2010, Footsteps2Brilliance has been serving counties, cities, and school districts in 31 states, Bangladesh and Pakistan via its virtual resources. Footsteps2Brilliance was recognized by the Obama White House, The United Nations, ACSA, and other organizations for its work in eliminating illiteracy, improving parent engagement, and supporting educators.

The Footsteps2Brilliance $120,000,000 Social Justice Equity Grant helps you eliminate illiteracy for all Birth – 3rd Grade children while providing an invaluable tool for parents that now have to truly be their children's direct teachers and supporters. Footsteps2Brilliance is honored to help.
